“ Sherry was the best. We had so many laughs together when she was my assistant at the bookstore. When I left I knew the store was in capable hands. She was kind and considerate of everyone. Sherry still ranks in my top three of the kindest people I've ever met. That woman was a fearless fighter. She loved people and I know how ferocious her love of family was. Sherry, once you reach your destination, I know you'll shine your love down on us. My heart goes out to your children, husband, and your many friends. I will never forget you.

“ had the privilege of working with Sherry, and she was so much more than a coworker — she was a friend. There are people who make work feel easier simply because you can trust them, laugh with them, and confide in them. That was Sherry. Her kindness, her spirit, and the joy she brought into every day will be deeply missed. Godspeed, Sherry.

*I'm sure if anyone is dancing with Angels it has to be Sherry. She was an angel here on earth. Always taking in loved ones and doing it with a smile. She was a hard worker and yet a gentle soul. I never seen Sherry that she wasn't smiling and so kind. I know one thing she raised a daughter just like her. Loving and caring and that is Misty Duncan my daughter too. Misty I know your mom is Dancing with the angels and seeing her master face to face. What a wonderful time she is having. She will be missed from so many but mostly her family that she loved so dearly. Keep her with you inside your heart where she feels at home. Cherish the sweet memories and moments you've shared. Sherry we all loved you and this isn't goodbye, it's until we meet again. My prayers and love goes to your family and friends in this time of sorrow.
Sherry fly high with your new angel wings! 💖*
