“ My fondest memories of Aunt Shirley occurred during my year at NEO A&M. I would drop by her home, frequently out of the blue, to see Steve or Mike. Whether they were there or not, She was always nice, always friendly, never indicating in any way that she was inconvenienced. She always had coffee or tea to share and time to talk. Her home was always a safe haven. These were the only times I was around Aunt Shirley without other family members. I was astounded at how generous, warm and gracious she was at all times. The world is a little less friendly, less pleasant and a little colder with her passing. I will always hold her memory in her heart.

Our love and sympathy to Mike and family. May you be comforted in the days to come. That illness is cruel but your mom can finally be at peace.

“ My sincere condolences to the family for your loss. Out Heavenly Father cares about your tears of grief at 1 Peter 5:7 he tells us to throw all our anxiety on him. And Isaiah 66:13 God says that He will keep comforting you, just as a mother comforts her son.
