

Shirley Mae Trimble

November 7, 1932 - February 22, 2013

Shirley Mae Trimble, 80, of Neosho, Missouri passed away Friday, February 22, 2013. She was born November 7, 1932 in Richland, Missouri and was the daughter of Carl and Ola Mae Brumble Brittain. She married B.F. (Steve) Trimble in 1954. They lived in Fairland and Miami, Oklahoma for 51 years. She worked in real estate and the turnpike gift shop. She loved life, people and had a great sense of humor. Preceded in death by a son John Warden Jr., sisters Freda Ramsey, Opal Wagner and a brother Fred Brittain.

Surviving daughters Colleen Woodward and husband Don of Neosho, Missouri, Mavis Brown and Reita Welch, Malakoff, Texas, three grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

She stated she wanted no funeral services and no sad song singing or mourning. She said celebrate the life she had. Those who knew her would say "That sounds like Shirley." Her Spirit will be sorely missed.

Services are under the care of the Brown-Winters Funeral Home and Cremation Service in Miami.

Friends and family may leave notes of encouragement to the family by viewing Shirley's Tribute Page at www.brown-winters.com.

Tribute Wall

WM

“ Aunt Shirley's sense of humor reminded me often how perspective can make all the difference. I admired her strength and humility and will miss her encouraging presence.

Willow Markham - March 20, 2013 at 08:16 PM

“ Shellie Rhodes lit a candle in memory of Shirley Mae Trimble

Shellie Rhodes - March 03, 2013 at 10:09 PM

CW

Thanks so much! She really enjoyed you as neighbors.

Colleen Woodward - March 08, 2013 at 11:24 AM

BR

“ Shellie and I sure enjoyed having Shirley as a next door neighbor. Shirley's concern for our family was genuine and sincere. She would always ask how our kids were doing. Shirley had a way of making you feel special! It was truly a privilege for our family to have known her and to be her neighbor.

Bruce Rhodes

Bruce Rhodes - February 24, 2013 at 05:14 PM

Thank you for all you did for mom, she appreciated the kindness you showed her.

---

Colleen Woodward - March 08, 2013 at 11:27 AM