

Stanley C. Kirk

January 22, 1931 - January 9, 2018

Stanley C. Kirk , 86, passed away on Tuesday, January 9, 2018, he was born January 22nd, 1931 in Afton, Oklahoma. He was an All-State football player for Afton High School in 1948 before graduating from there in 1949. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years during the Korean War and re-enlisted for four additional years later because he liked seeing the world and serving his country. Stanley taught fourth grade for 30 years at Seneca Elementary School in Seneca, Missouri. He enjoyed teaching and spending time with his students. In his spare time he loved painting, carving, traveling with family, and taking care of animals. Stanley is survived by his wife Priscilla Kirk, daughter Kelly Haley, and two grandchildren, all of Fayetteville, Arkansas. A memorial service will be held Saturday January 27 at 2:00 at Brown-Winters Funeral Home in Afton, Oklahoma. In lieu of flowers, please donate to The Humane Society.

“ I had the privilege of being in his class in or around 1980 as a student. It was a rarity to have a male teacher of his caliber in the lower grades who really made you think and apply what you should know. I did not know he had served in the Korean War because he never mentioned it in the classroom or sought out recognition. He served his country well as a teacher and as a service member. Thank you.
