“ Steve, my best friend. We were always there for each other. Through good and bad, thick and thin. It didn't matter if we dealt with a situation with tears or with laughter. It just never accured to me that one day soon I would be going through life without u. I miss your laughter, your story's were always a blast. Rest in peace my friend. U deserve it.

“ I met Steve through a really good friend who was his Best friend and they were inseparable, but I truly enjoyed spending time with both of them, cause it was never dull around him, he was a real sweetheart, that would help you if you ever needed it, and if he had what you needed.. He could brighten anyone's dark days.. Steve, you have been a real hero to me alot and you and Carmen was always there for me when I really needed you two.. I will always miss you, fly high good friend and please keep guarding Carmen and I, cause we would love that.. RIP Steve.. We love ya ❤️
