“ I sure will miss having a lively conversation with Terry or getting that phone call that my lawn is looking' shabby and he'll be by to take care of it for me. Or Ryan roping him into helping with one of my projects, whether it was moving a stranger or probably anything else Ryan asked him to do. What a guy! He would just jump in and say; "It ain't nothin' but a thing, don't worry about it." You will be missed my friend.

I send this note with true heartfelt condolence. It is with great embarrassment that I had no knowledge of this until yesterday, my heart grieves, not for Terry, but for Dawn, their children (and grandchildren), Alan, Pam, and their father. Yesterday I was so truly moved when the gentleman officiating the service read the letters from the daughters, and niece. I hope as time passes, so will the pain of loss!

“ To My Beloved Smith Family,

Oh! how my heart aches for all of you. Though I am miles away in Ga. and can not be with you my heart is there continually lifting all of you up in my prayers. I so very much treasure my early years in life being able to share time with Terry in his Springfield visits to Uncle Austin's and getting to share time and play some horse-shoe at the Smith Reunion of 1991. My favorite memory is taking Terry a chili dog from The DQ when he was tired of hospital food. The day Terry went to be with our Lord Jesus, the Lord gave me this verse, and I pass it on to each of you....."Though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit....rejoicing to see the steadfastness of your faith in Christ." (Colossians 2:5) Here's a Hug for each of you for the days ahead.

*love to all, your cousin, “ Terry is our friend and neighbor, A part of him will carry on though our memories of all the times he would stop and take the time to make us smile and laugh. Terry & my son (Abel) always hung out in their back yards and over the chain link fence, I would always catch these two carry on stories of life experiences, hobbies, and all the other interesting guy talk. Terry's kind heart put a smile on our face, looked out over us to protect us from wrong doers, and helped out if given the opportunity. I'm so grateful for the time that we got to know Terry and Family.
