“ I only met Ms.Kay once. It was when I was very young. She picked up me and my mom and sisters along the side of the road near Springfield MO. and brought us all the way to Miami where my grandmother (Jennie Taylor) lived. She showed me that day what a good samaritan/christian was. The world is lesser for her passing.

“ I've known Kay most my life. We both lived on O street and had the same birthday, and worked at Baptist. She laughed at me when she found out I left a turkey in my microwave for three days before we ate it. Needless to say, she WOULD NOT let me serve that turkey. We both shared Cooking with Brenda Gantt, our love for Thunder basketball and of course the love we had for Jesus Christ. I will miss her posts on facebook and staying connected with her in this way. I keep saying "Kay woke up this morning in heaven" and I have a smile and peace in my heart when I think about her being gone, but with Jesus now for eternity.

“ As Darrell was telling me about Theryn passing, my mind caught a glance of Theryn and Doyle sitting there talking about all their escapades. For quite some time, he reported in to her about his dating activities and they had so much fun laughing and talking with each other. I see them doing the same thing now. Renewing old friendships with loved ones.

She will be missed by all of us but she is now with those she loves that have gone on before her. Some glad morning, when this life is over I'll fly away — and so it is. I love you. Linda Seright
