“ I dont think it would be possible to narrow a lifetime down to one single memory! He was a good person and an amazing family man. He was funny, artistic, and extremely patient! To say he was a good man is truly an understatement. So thankful I got to be a part of his life, and be influenced by him and this amazing family. so sorry for your loss!
Sincerely,
Mary Ayres

“ We will miss Tom so much. He and Darrel used to brag to each other who could fix the best chili. They would work together at our Hospital Auxiliary fundraisers. We always enjoyed spending time with him. We shared a lot of laughs. May Clydene and family be comforted and filled with peace
