

Veora Juanita Cline

May 2, 1934 - December 12, 2023

Veora Juanita Cline passed December 12, 2023, surrounded by loved ones.

Juanita was born May 2, 1934, in Nevada, Missouri to Cecil and Veora (Shouse) Periman.

Juanita had been active in the First United Methodist Church, Pilot Club, American Legion Auxiliary, D.A.R. and several card clubs.

As a young mother, she was involved in all her children's activities, including being a cub scout leader, Homeroom mother, PTA and many more.

Juanita loved babies and little children as was evident when her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were around. She loved having the opportunity to be a caregiver to the children of Drs. Mark Osborn and Elaine Mader. They quickly became family and remain so, as does the family of Dr. Clark Osborn.

Juanita was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, and her husband Robert Cline (Bob). Survivors include her children and their families; Steve Cline and his wife Ginny, Trish Goodman and her husband Ed, Ronnie Cline and his wife Patty, David Cline, and his wife Ilene, seven grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Cline, I write with a very heavy heart. I will always remember you both being so caring, loving, fun, smart, enjoying life and for which anyone (as it applies) would love to call Mother, Father, Grandmother, Grandfather, Aunt, Uncle, friend and family. Always "In touch and not forgotten"til we play cards again. Your loving friend, and extended military family - James Garstecki.

“ I remember when I was a youngster & lived across the street from Aunt Juanita. I loved watching her make peanut brittle at Christmas time. I loved peanut brittle. She would pour it out & work it on her kitchen table. I'll never forget that. Rest in peace Aunt Juanita!
