

Vera Sherley Torbert

July 2, 1920 - February 14, 2012

Vera Sherley Torbert, 91, of Kary, North Carolina, formerly of Miami, died Tuesday, February 14, 2012 at Rex Nursing Center in Kary.

Vera was born Vera Lorena Sherley on July 2, 1920 in Cleora, Oklahoma to Tony and Bertha (Woods) Sherley. Vera graduated from Fairland High School and then worked as a Beauty Operator with Fifty-Fifty Beauty Shop in Miami from April 1939 to November 1943. On November 23, 1943, Vera joined the United States Navy serving in the American Theater until her honorable discharge on February 4, 1946.

On August 18, 1946 Vera married Lisle Torbert in Miami. He preceded her in death in 1999.

Vera loved her family and enjoyed organizing things, sewing, going to garage sales and working in her flower beds. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Miami.

Vera was also preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and two sisters.

Survivors include her son Tim Torbert and his wife Julie and their three children, Alex and Leroy Monk, Bridget Ables, and Isaac Torbert all of Salina, Oklahoma; her daughter Sherley Teel and her son Brooks Teel both of Kary,

North Carolina.

There will be a funeral service for Vera Sherley Torbert at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, February 19, 2012 at Cooper-Althouse Funeral Home in Miami, Oklahoma with Jim Rockholt officiating. A private burial will take place in G.A.R. Cemetery in Miami on Tuesday, February 21, 2012.