“ My dear friend, I miss you so much. I looked for you Sunday at church. Then I thought you will not be here. You are worshipping Jesus in Heaven. You beat me home. Prayers for your family..

“ I have a hard time not calling you, Vicki! We talked almost every day or at least every other day after playing phone tag repeatedly! LoL I miss you so much but memories of all of our adventures, new restaurants, side trips, flower hunting down the country roads, looking for rocks along the river, you sharing your knowledge of all the plants and flowers I'd ask you about. I loved getting to visit with your Mom too. I promise I'll go see her. Been so weird without you! Vicki was one of my dearest best friends; we decided we must be Soul Sisters! Thank you for so many fun times. And meeting all your family at that awesome family reunion you orchestrated they all made me feel part of your family. Until we meet again love you Vicki!

“ We first met in Cushing OK @ Harrison Elementary. My family moved and we met again 3 years later in Kellyville! We were close friends throughout Jr. High and High School. She was my maid-of-honor. We have not spoken except thru Facebook the last 10 years or so...My heart tells me she has been healed and is flourishing in Jesus' presence!
