“ Dear Betty Lou, We are so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He was so kind to share his knowledge of horses with Fred and I as we searched to find Katherine her first horse. His assistance in the Pastor Search Committee, the Session and throughout the church were selfless. We appreciate what he stood for- honesty, hard work, and love of his family. Our love to you, Sandy and the girls. Fred and Nancy

“ I always ran into Bill (and Chris) at Shawnee Grocery. Once, Chris stayed in the truck on the phone, Bill was in the store filling a cup with coffee. I asked if he was taking one out to Chris. He said he wasn't, that they only had money for one cup. Chris had finished his call and walked in. I offered to buy, but they both just laughed. Great sense of humor that I really miss. God bless you family and friends!

“ Mr Bill was one of the finest men I had the pleasure to call my friend. I mourn for his family loss. I rejoice, for the heavens has gained a Angel. May you only ride the best horses and look after some ol red cows. Happy Trails
