“ It made me sad to see that Bill passed. I’ll always remember him as a great boss when I worked at Commerce Post Office. Can still hear him often saying (as he came in back door in the morning)” It’s a beautiful day on the north 40.”

I also enjoyed how much he enjoyed traveling.

Margie, you and Bill raised good children. My sympathy to them and you.

My prayer is for the Holy Spirit to surround you all with love and comfort. Bill was such a good Christian man. He was always friendly and happy. He had the joy of the Lord and it showed. I know you all will miss him so much. But I’m sure that his Father in Heaven welcomed him saying, “well done my good and faithful servant”.
